Trade Notice No. 01/2020

Dated: 31.03.2020

In view of complete lockdown declares throughout the country with effect from 25.03.2020 and non-inclusion of GST Department under the category of 'essential services', officers of GST Department are not permitted to attend office and they are forced to work from home.

2. Since many taxpayers are working during lockdown for providing essential services or for manufacturing and supplying goods required for daily needs of the public, while they are unable to contact the GST offices owing to lockdown, as a measure of trade facilitation, it has been decided to attend to the GST related work of the taxpayers besides addressing their grievances and responding to the queries raised by them on a regular basis.

3. With a view to provide unrestricted taxpayer services and help the trade/industry/taxpayers run their business smoothly, it has been decided to provide them with continuous access to GST offices over telephone and through e-mail in the following manner :-

(i) Designated officers have been nominated for each jurisdiction, who shall be available to respond to the calls from taxpayers during normal working hour of office. Taxpayers can contact the designated officers in connection with GST related work of urgent nature.

(ii) Taxpayers may also raise queries of urgent nature related to problems being faced by them with regard to GST/SVLDR Scheme and get solutions from the designated officers over voice call.

(iii) Taxpayers can also raise queries or express their grievances through mail to the given e-mail id(s). Such queries/grievances shall be responded to within 24 hours or as soon as possible and shall be disposed of within 3 days.

4. During the lockdown period, taxpayers may contact the designated officers nominated for each jurisdiction, as per details given below:-
