2. On going through the applications filed by you it comes out that you are not interested in seeking information relevant to some specific point of public interest. Rather you have sought information with respect to almost each and every aspect of working of the department and that too, in a manner as if you have to ensure overall effective supervision of the working of the department. The Nine applications listed above cover a variety of issues concerning the functioning of the department. The manner in which the information has been sought indicates as if you are either interested in ensuring that the department is functioning and managing its affairs with regard to different aspects of working effectively or trying to collect and collate information for doing an exhaustive research on the working of the department. The RTI Act mandates obtaining of information of public interest from a public authority which is otherwise not available to the person interested in obtaining such information. The objective is to ensure that information of public interest is suitably disclosed in public interest. But this does not mean that detailed information with regard to each and every aspect of the working of the public authority has to be collected, tabulated and provided to you. Such an exercise to provide the desired information would result in the human resources of the department having to be devoted to consult almost each and every file to prepare the information. Certainly that has not been the objective of the RTI Act. If you are interested in getting information with any specific matter you may obtain such information or you may visit the office of the public authority to inspect the relevant file to ascertain as to what documents or which information you want to obtain in public interest.

3. Going by the large number of applications filed by you and the magnitude of the information sought therein it is certain that preparation of such information will negatively affect the useful time and functioning of department. Any effort at providing the information related to the entire scope of working of the department in response to the innumerable applications is bound to result in wastage of precious time of the work force. Certainly it would result in disproportionately diverting the human resources of the department which is also objected to by section 7(9) of the Right to Information Act.

4. The magnitude of information sought indicates that public interest is lacking in all the instant applications. While deciding the Writ Petition No. 7976/2020 vide judgment dated 12.01.2021, Hon'ble Delhi High Court has laid down a principle which is relevant to the instant applications. The Hon'ble Court observed thus: "this court is of opinion that whenever information is sought under the RTI Act, the disclosure of interest in the information sought would be necessary". The instant applications lack the

1/1738997/2023 disclosure of public interest especially when seen in the light of the aspects covered and the magnitude of information sought.

5. It would be relevant to quote the following paragraph from the judgment dated 09.08.2011 of Hon'ble Supreme Court in Civil Appeal No. 6454/2011 titled Central Board of Secondary Education & Anr. Vs Aditya Bandopadhyay & Ors.:-

"Indiscriminate and impractical demands or directions under RTI Act for disclosure of all and sundry information (unrelated to transparency and accountability in the functioning of public authorities and eradication of corruption) would be counter-productive as it will adversely affect the efficiency of the administration and result in the executive getting bogged down with the non-productive work of collecting and furnishing information. The Act should not be allowed to be misused or abused, to become a tool to obstruct the national development and integration, or to destroy the peace, tranquility and harmony among its citizens. Nor should it be converted into a tool of oppression or intimidation of honest officials striving to do their duty. The nation does not want a scenario where 75% of the staff of public authorities spends 75% of their time in collecting and furnishing information to applicants instead of discharging their regular duties. The threat of penalties under the RTI Act and the pressure of the authorities under the RTI Act should not lead to employees of a public authorities prioritizing information furnishing, at the cost of their normal and regular duties."

6. Many applications submitted by you under the Right to Information Act, 2005 at earlier points of time have already been disposed but the flow of applications continues unabated. The nature and magnitude of information sought would indicate that indiscriminate and impractical demands have been made for disclosure of a vast variety of information. None of the applications involves information related to a specific case or a specific file. Hence, the information cannot be provided without diverting a large pool of manpower for collecting and providing the information at the cost of discharging their regular duties. Therefore, the instant applications are covered by the judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court.

7. Keeping in view the pronouncements of Hon'ble Delhi High Court and Hon'ble Supreme Court as referred to above and the provisions of the RTI Act including the principle of disclosure of public interest, all the instant applications filed by you are hereby rejected.

8. If you are not satisfied with above reply, you may prefer an appeal against the reply within 30 days of receipt of this reply to The Appellate Authority and Additional Commissioner, Office of the Chief Commissioner, CGST & Central Excise (JZ) Jaipur, New Central Revenue Building, Statue Circle, C-Scheme, Jaipur-302005.

F. No. 3(4)/2015-Coord.(RTI)
Government of India
Office of the Development Commissioner
Micro, Small & Medium Enterprises
(Coord. Section)

'A' Wing 7th Floor
Nirman Bhawan, New Delhi

Dated the 18th July, 2016

To

Shri B.N. Sudhakara,
Director,
MSME-DI, Ahmedabad

Subject: Irrelevant answering to queries under RTI Act and forwarding of reply without approval of Competent Authority.

Sir,

I am directed to refer to your letter No. DIR/MSMEDI/ABD/1/16-17/178 dated 27.06.2016 on the above subject, wherein you have mentioned a case of your office, where a reply to an RTI application was given by an official other than the designated CPIO. To this extent, you have sought clarifications whether such an eventuality could occur and also without the approval of the CPIO/Director.

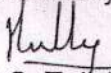

In this connection, your attention is invited to section 5 (1) of the RTI Act which prescribes designating CPIOs and ACPIOs to deal with RTI applications. The implication of this section is that only a designated CPIO could reply to an RTI application and in his absence, this function would be performed by a designated ACPIO.

In your letter, you have mentioned that a note was written by the CPIO to the AD for replying to the RTI application. This is in clear violation of the RTI Act, since the powers/duties of a CPIO cannot be delegated and hence the Act prescribes for designating ACPIOs.

So far as obtaining the approval of a higher authority before replying to an RTI Application, it is to state that the role of an CPIO is quasi-judicial by nature and power has been vested in him through an Act passed by Parliament and hence the CPIO is not required to obtain approval and he becomes responsible for the content of the reply furnished in response to an RTI application. Secondly, the authority above the CPIO is normally designated as the First Appellate Authority, whose job is to adjudicate in a dispute that may arise between an appellant and the CPIO and hence his approval of the reply at the initial stage may create a conflict of interest at the time of a first appeal proffered by an appellant.

In view of the above, you are advised to ensure that all RTI applications received in your office are disposed of only by the CPIO and such cases as the one mentioned by you do not recur. It may also be kept in mind that it is not the responsibility of the First Appellate Authority to reply or to furnish information in response to RTI applications and his duty is only to adjudicate.

Yours faithfully

(Robert C. Tully)
Director & CPIO
