2. On going through the applications filed by you it comes out that you are not interested in seeking information relevant to some specific point of public interest. Rather you have sought information with respect to almost each and every aspect of working of the department and that too, in a manner as if you have to ensure overall effective supervision of the working of the department. The Ten applications listed above cover a variety of issues concerning the functioning of the department. The manner in which the information has been sought indicates as if you are either interested in ensuring that the department is functioning and managing its affairs with regard to different aspects of working effectively or trying to collect and collate information for doing an exhaustive research on the working of the department. The RTI Act mandates obtaining of information of public interest from a public authority which is otherwise not available to the person interested in obtaining such information. The objective is to ensure that information of public interest is suitably disclosed in public interest. But this does not mean that detailed information with regard to each and every aspect of the working of the public authority has to be collected, tabulated and provided to you. Such an exercise to provide the desired information would result in the human resources of the department having to be devoted to consult almost each and every file to prepare the information. Certainly that has not been the objective of the RTI Act. If you are interested in getting information with any specific matter you may obtain such information or you may visit the office of the public authority to inspect the relevant file to ascertain as to what documents or which information you want to obtain in public interest.

3. Going by the large number of applications filed by you and the magnitude of the information sought therein it is certain that preparation of such information will negatively affect the useful time and functioning of department. Any effort at providing the information related to the entire scope of working of the department in response to the innumerable applications is bound to result in wastage of precious time of the work force. Certainly it would result in disproportionately diverting the human resources of the department which is also objected to by section 7(9) of the Right to Information Act.

4. The magnitude of information sought indicates that public interest is lacking in all the instant applications. While deciding the Writ Petition No. 7976/2020 vide judgment dated 12.01.2021, Hon'ble Delhi High Court has laid down a principle which is relevant to the instant applications. The Hon'ble Court observed thus: "this court is of opinion that whenever information is sought under the RTI Act, the disclosure of interest in the information sought would be necessary". The instant applications lack the disclosure of public interest especially when seen in the light of the aspects covered and the magnitude of information sought.

5. It would be relevant to quote the following paragraph from the judgment dated 09.08.2011 of Hon'ble Supreme Court in Civil Appeal No. 6454/2011 titled Central Board of Secondary Education & Anr. Vs Aditya Bandopadhyay & Ors.:-

"Indiscriminate and impractical demands or directions under RTI Act for disclosure of all and sundry information (unrelated to transparency and accountability in the functioning of public authorities and eradication of corruption) would be counter-productive as it will adversely affect the efficiency of the administration and result in the executive getting bogged down with the non-productive work of collecting and furnishing information. The Act should not be allowed to be misused or abused, to become a tool to obstruct the national development and integration, or to destroy the peace, tranquility and harmony among its citizens. Nor should it be converted into a tool of oppression or intimidation of honest officials striving to do their duty. The nation does not want a scenario where 75% of the staff of public authorities spends 75% of their time in collecting and furnishing information to applicants instead of discharging their regular duties. The threat of penalties under the RTI Act and the pressure of the authorities under the RTI Act should not lead to employees of a public authorities prioritizing information furnishing, at the cost of their normal and regular duties."

6. Many applications submitted by you under the Right to Information Act, 2005 at earlier points of time have already been disposed but the flow of applications continues unabated. The nature and magnitude of information sought would indicate that indiscriminate and impractical demands have been made for disclosure of a vast variety of information. None of the applications involves information related to a specific case or a specific file. Hence, the information cannot be provided without diverting a large pool of manpower for collecting and providing the information at the cost of discharging their regular duties. Therefore, the instant applications are covered by the judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court.

7. Keeping in view the pronouncements of Hon'ble Delhi High Court and Hon'ble Supreme Court as referred to above and the provisions of the RTI Act including the principle of disclosure of public interest, all the instant applications filed by you are hereby rejected.

8. If you are not satisfied with above reply, you may prefer an appeal against the reply within 30 days of receipt of this reply to The Appellate Authority and Additional Commissioner, Office of the Chief Commissioner, CGST & Central Excise (JZ) Jaipur, New Central Revenue Building, Statue Circle, C-Scheme, Jaipur-302005.

Yours sincerely,

Information Sought :	As a Indian citizen I AM ALSO AN INDIRECT TAXPAYER. In transparent governance it is to ensure that public complaints are handled effectively and rights of redress upheld is an integral feature of good governance and effective service delivery. The most important reason of vigilance activity is not to reduce but to enhance the level of efficiency and effectiveness in the organization.Thus, whether a person of common prudence, working within the ambit of the prescribed rules, regulations and instructions, would have taken the decision in the prevailing circumstances in the administrative/financial interests of the organization is one possible criterion for determining the bona fides of the case. A positive response to this question may indicate the existence of bona- fides. Absence of vigilance angle in various acts of omission and commission does not mean that the concerned official is not liable to face the consequences of his actions.
